The Lord Mayor of London Represents England-Edison to be the Lion. Special Cable Dispatch to THE EVENING STAR.

Paris is a great success in the forced absence of Lord Lytton. Owing to Salisbury's instructions, the lord mayor has been accepted by the French as the envoy extraordinary of the English people, and President Carnot, Tirade, and others treated him with the greatest respect. I traveled with him from Paris and be told me that he fears there will be disturbances in France after the exhibition closes. He found the French feeling very sore about the family. Whisky Killed Him.

CRICAGO, May 15 .- Two young men, Tim Sullivan, eighteen years old, and Tom Curry, nineteen years of age, had quite a fight with king alcohol, yesterday, with fatal results. Young Sullivan's brother is a saloon keeper, who engaged the boys to move a whisky barrel into the cellar. They found a bucketful of liquor in the barrel and immediately proceeded to make themselves comfortable. They emptied the bucket between them and were soon in a paralyzed state of drunkenness This gave way to a stupor and later on to convulsions. The two boys were found some time later lying insensible on the ground, and their features in a horribly distorted shape. Sullivan died two hours after taking the first drink. Curry is still alive, but in such a critical condition that his death is expected at any time.
